

I am writing to say that there should be no changes to the current laws that are in place. I am not on the do not call list, but would like to know that if I ever got on the list. I would want full protections. My family and friends do enjoy this protection, and it would be a slap in their faces if they have to endure less protections because the companies want to solícite consumers without their permission. DO NOT CHANGE THE LAWS...